

SUBALTERN'S SWORD

References: PWOR Unit Awards

GENERAL

1. The Subaltern's Sword is awarded annually to a deserving subaltern of the Regiment. This sword finds it home on display within the Officers Mess. There is no higher mark of distinction among the Subalterns of the Regiment, than to be awarded this sword.
2. The original sword was gifted to the officers of the Regiment by one of our most revered Commanding Officers, Honorary Lieutenant Colonel J.D. McQueen, CD. This sword is traditionally presented annually at the Regimental Birthday Dinner. In the mid 1990's however a break-in occurred at the officer's mess, and Honorary Lieutenant Colonel McQueen's sword was among the items stolen. The Regiment was blessed by our former Regimental Chaplain, the Reverend Canon Major Alexander Wakeling, CD, with the gift of his father's sword as a replacement. His father, Captain A.J. Wakeling, served in the Regiment during the 1930s, and can be seen carrying this very same sword as a Lieutenant in some of our historical photos.
3. While the sword carried now is that of the Wakeling family, the award designation still stands as J.D. McQueen, with the blessing of Padre Wakeling. The citation is as follows.

STORAGE AND USE

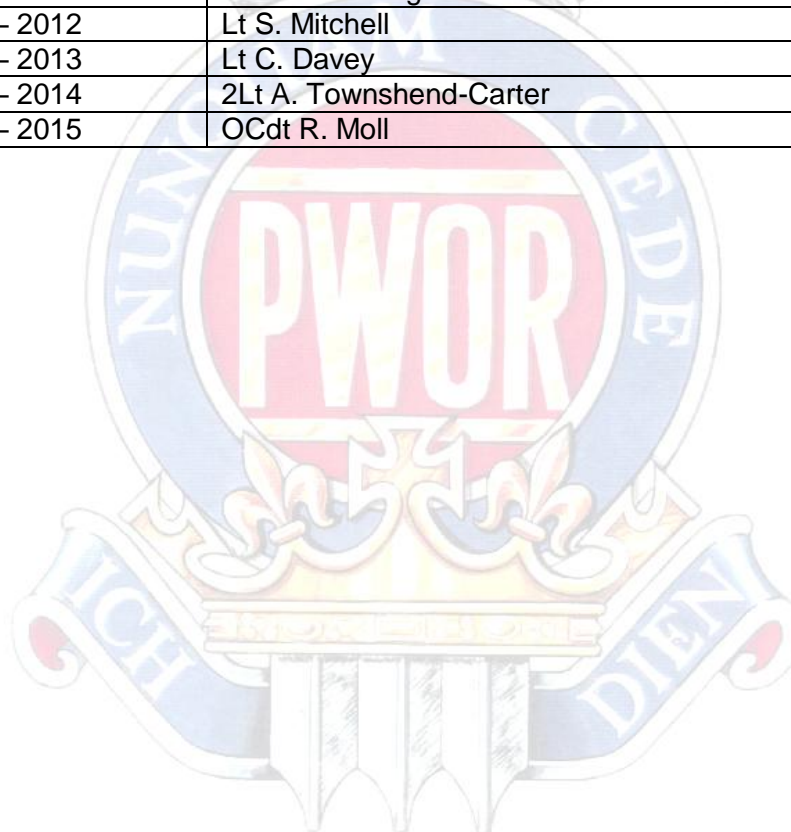

4. The sword shall be stored at all times in the Officers' Mess.
5. The sword may be carried by the current recipient during any Regimental parade where officer are carrying arms. If the current award holder is not on parade when the swords are to be carried, a previous recipient may carry it instead. No one who has not been a recipient of the Subalterns Sword shall be permitted to carry it.
