

REGIMENTAL FOUNDATION

References: Nil

GENERAL

1. The Princess of Wales' Own Regimental Foundation is a Canada Revenue Agency approved charity, with the objectives of Public Education, Heritage Preservation, and Public Welfare; all in the context of the military community in general and the PWOR in particular. A more detailed description of the Foundation objectives can be found on their website www.PWOR.ca.

OFFICERS

2. The Foundation maintains a number of key appointments, many staffed from members of the Regimental Senate. Of note, the Commanding Officer of the PWOR is not an officer of the Foundation. The current officers are as follows;

- | | |
|---------------|----------------------------|
| a. President: | HCol Dr. John Scott Cowan, |
| b. Director: | LCol (Ret'd) David Morkem, |
| c. Secretary: | LCol James McKay, |
| d. Director: | Col Mark Hutchings, |
| e. Director: | LCol (Ret'd) Ed Bradley, |
| f. Director: | HLCol Arthur Jordan, |
| g. Treasurer: | Capt (Ret'd) Gil Pierog. |

CHARITABLE WORK

3. The Foundation has displayed significant evidence of fulfilling its mandate, with an number of important conservation, military heritage projects and benevolent activities undertaken. Examples include historical displays associated to the 150th Anniversary of the Regiment, reproduction uniforms for the 21st Bn used during the Kingston Remembrance Day service, restoration of Kingston's Cross of Sacrifice, and support for the Hill 70 Project.

The Princess of Wales' Own Regiment