

BATTLE HONOURS

1. As one of Canada's oldest military organizations, members of the Princess of Wales' Own Regiment have seen action in all Canadian conflicts, including those predating Confederation. The Regiment holds dear to its own service, as well as perpetuating the military service of the citizen soldiers of Kingston, including the Volunteer Militia Rifle Companies of Kingston, the 14th Battalion Canadian Militia, and the 21st, 59th, and 253rd Battalions of the Canadian Expeditionary Force.
2. All capitalized Battle Honours are, or can be, emblazoned on the Regimental Colour.
3. Perpetuating the service of the citizen soldiers of Kingston during the War of 1812:
  - a. DEFENCE OF CANADA 1812-15
  - b. NIAGARA
4. Service of members of the Princess of Wales' Own Regiment during the Boer War:
  - a. SOUTH AFRICA 1900
5. Perpetuating the service of the 21st Battalion, CEF during the Great War:
  - a. SOMME 1916-18
  - b. Ypres 1917
  - c. Ancre Heights
  - d. Theipval
  - e. Mount Sorrel
  - f. Scarpe 1918
  - g. Drocourt-Queant
  - h. Hindenburg Line
  - i. Canal Du Nord
  - j. FLERS-COURCELETTE
  - k. ARRAS 1917-18
  - l. VIMY 1917
  - m. HILL 70
  - n. PASSCHENDAELE
  - o. AMIENS
  - p. CAMBRAI 1918
  - q. PURSUIT TO MONS
  - r. FRANCE AND FLANDERS 1915-18
6. Service of the members of The Princess of Wales' Own Regiment who served with the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Highlanders during World War II:
  - a. BADGE OF DISTINCTION (on the Regimental Colours) – Stormont Dundas and Glengarry Highlanders 1944-1945
7. Service of members of the Princess of Wales' Own Regiment in Afghanistan:
  - a. AFGHANISTAN.